

Concord June 11th 1873.

Dear Miss Chandler,

That is a charming complement of you:-

"Concord is a part of my life" and a very beautiful part,
"a gracious profusion forms"

Yes.

verily. and it claims you personally, geographically, as part of it. for a few days

now. Summer days they shall be a best befitting.

And so, on my return from a walk with the Connecticut, you are to pay in your annual visit. Our sheep-sheepers come to day, Louisa is in good spirits - her story fairly written thoughts. and to-day June is ready to embrace and enthrall her blushing daughter.

I write this in advance

that you may be free to come, and not make other engagements meanwhile.

Send you one Saturday
a copy of "The Liberator" World "containing an extract from a letter of May 1 which I thought might interest you.

Affectionately,

A. Bronson Alcott.

Miss Ellen A. Thaxter. }
